2024 Road Trip to the 63rd Wilber, Nebraska Czech Festival!

The 63rd Annual Wilber Czech Festival runs Friday, August 2 through Sunday, August 4 and is expected to attract more than 30,000 Czech culture enthusiasts to the community of Wilber, Nebraska, population 1,940. Wilber, which is located in the heart of early Nebraska Czech settlement, was identified as the “Czech Capital of the USA” in a Joint Resolution issued by Congress in 1987. Promoters of the annual event have characterized the Wilber Czech Festival as “three days of parades, dancing, music and Czech food galore” with the crowning event being the Miss Czech-Slovak US Pageant competition that takes place on Sunday evening. If you have ever considered attending the Wilber Czech Festival, let 2024 be your year! SPJST is happy to offer its members and friends of the Society what promises to be a fun, five-day, four-night road trip through mid-America and the opportunity to enjoy the 63rd Annual Wilber Czech Festival.
